

EB Mediterranea Srl, brokerage and branding company of European Brokers group, which has its headquarters in Naples in the prestigious setting of Via Marina, 20 and in Sorrento in Via Degli Aranci, 99.

This is a brand that wants to recall a feeling of "Parthenopean Renaissance" in the insurance field, a tribute to a capital city of the Mediterranean that embodies values, traditions and culture known throughout the world.

EB Mediterranea already has a portfolio of approximately 1 million commissions awarded for the extraordinary proportional demerger transaction of the broker Agea Srl. Two well-known exponents of the insurance world lead the company. Namely Massimo Massaccesi and Massimo Iaccarino who respectively hold the position of Chairman and CEO of EB Mediterranea. Both of them are also responsible for the insurance business of the EBA group.

Massimo Iaccarino, born in 1955, has been working as an insurance broker for several decades, first as the founder of GESTASS in the position of Director, then as CEO of Agea Broker srl, with experience as Manager of FATA Assicurazioni (Generali Group).

Massimo Massaccesi, born in 1952, was for a long time INA-Assitalia General Agent in Naples, also holding the role of Consitalia President, a consortium formed between all the Agents of the INA Assitalia Group and the Management of the Company to manage the Agreements stipulated by the Institute throughout the national territory. Since 2012 he has been Vice President of Agea Broker srl.

Link: <https://www.ebrokers.it/>